

Arleen Van

Property Casualty Claims Liaison

Arleen Van has worked in the Claims Department of InterWest Insurance Service for over 20 years. She came to InterWest from the Bay Area, with a vast amount of experience, having spent the previous 21 years as a Property Casualty Adjuster and Supervisor with various commercial lines insurance carriers.

With a creative ability to read and interpret policy language, Arleen has, on many occasions, persuaded insurance carriers to reconsider coverage denials with favorable results for clients. She is well respected within the insurance adjuster community for her depth of knowledge and is sought out for her opinion, even to the extent of enhancing an insurance carrier's internal procedures.

Because of her experience, level of expertise, and extensive curiosity, Arleen is the point person for technical coverage questions at every level of the organization. She keeps abreast of new case law and insurance claims trends. She is also involved in training new claims staff to meet the high standards of the InterWest Claims Department.
