

Bruce Thomas

Benefits Broker

Bruce Thomas has been a Benefits Broker with InterWest Insurance Services since 2006. Prior to joining InterWest, he was a successful mortgage broker and passionate about helping people work successfully through the loan process. Bruce has carried that same passion with him to InterWest and looks forward to working with employers and employees to help them navigate through the health benefits options and being an integral part of expanding the Employee Health Benefits Division. What he enjoys most is InterWest's team philosophy and is extremely proud of the quality internal services the Employee Health Benefits Division provides to its clients.

Bruce is active in the community and a member of the Chico Exchange Club and the North Valley Association of Health Underwriters. Bruce also serves on the Finance Committee for a very successful Charter School in Chico.

Bruce is a native of Chico and graduated from California State University, Chico in 2002 with a degree in Psychology. Shortly after graduation, Bruce married his wife Lisa in Maui, Hawaii. They have four children and enjoy spending time together at the park, playing sports and hanging out at home.
