

Caín Medina

Commercial Insurance Broker

Caín Medina obtained a Bachelor of Science degree from CSU, Chico in Business Administration with an option in Management Information Systems, in 2002. After graduating from Chico State he went to work for Wells Fargo Financial as a Credit Manager and was shortly promoted to Branch Manager. After working a few years with Wells Fargo, Caín went to work for Paiva Hulling & Shelling, Inc. as a Human Resource Manager. As the Human Resource Manager, he had the task of dealing with the commercial insurance for the processing plant and the health benefits of the employees.

Having been around agriculture all his life and being an almond grower himself, when Caín came to work for InterWest, his focus was to specialize in the needs of the agriculture and food manufacturing/processing industries. Caín is bilingual in Spanish and assists the InterWest Loss Control Department with training sessions in Spanish. He is working on obtaining both his Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) designation as well as his Agribusiness and Farm Insurance Specialist (AFIS) designation.

Cain is married to his wonderful wife, Lupe, and they reside in Orland with their two children, Abrahán and Itzél. In his spare time he likes to hang out with his family and play golf.
