

Dave Dias

Vice President and Executive Board Member

Dave Dias has been actively engaged in the insurance industry for 22 years and serves on the Board of Directors of InterWest Insurance Services, Inc., one of the largest privately held brokerage firms in the U.S. Dave serves on several boards and sub-committees including Governance and Compensation. Dave's primary responsibilities are market creation and business development, leading a technical team for client deliverables and consulting with his clients on risk management transfer techniques and business strategy. Dave is active at the legislative level with workers' compensation reform issues and has developed successful captive workers' compensation programs. He leads several strategic initiatives for InterWest including the Green Focus Group and the Hospitality Practice Team.

Formerly an elected Mayor Pro Tempore, he has broad public policy experience. Dave was an innovator in the 1990's, successfully utilizing the internet as the primary means of communicating with the electorate and met with Vice President Al Gore in Washington DC.

Under Dave's leadership, the City of Merced was an early adopter and one of the first cities in the U.S. to use the internet as a communications tool.

Dave is on the Board of Trustees of Azusa Pacific University serving on the Executive Committee and as Chairman of the Trusteeship Committee. He is co-founder of the Time Out Conference and has served on numerous non-profit organization boards advancing philanthropic activities for more than two decades. Dave is the Founder and Chairman of the Board of Premier Legacy Films. Dave is also a Principal of Trinitas Partners based in the Silicon Valley.

Dave is the author of Irene's Journey of Faith and his newest book, SALES Ethos, which is now available on AMAZON.

As a former police officer for 10 years, Dave studied Criminology at San Jose State University and attended the Juvenile Justice Institute at USC.