

Derek Parsons, RHU[®]

Benefits Broker

In 2008, Derek Parsons joined the Redding office of InterWest Insurance Services as an employee benefits consultant. Prior to joining InterWest, Derek served as a Construction Business Manager for Kiewit Pacific in West Sacramento.

Derek is a graduate of California State University, Chico with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. He achieved his Registered Health Underwriter (RHU) designation in April of 2011, after a culmination of 150 hours of class and 6 hours of testing in areas of Group Benefits Plans, Self-Funding, Benefits Legislative Compliance, and Health Maintenance Organizations.

Derek grew up in Northern California and believes in community involvement. He continues to support the California Deer Association as Committee Member, Shasta Regional Community Foundation, Shasta Economic Development Corporation, and Shasta Technology Association as ways to reinvest his time back into community oriented organizations.

He enjoys serving his clients and believes that making our clients safer, more efficient, and more profitable is the best path for mutual success.
