

Greg Scoville

Vice President

Greg Scoville joined one of InterWest's predecessor organizations, Lindo, Hanna & Abbott, in 1989, to give them a presence in Sacramento and has been a principal since.

Greg began his insurance career 30 years ago working in his father's insurance agency. He attended Chapman College in Southern California where he played college baseball. After college, Greg continued his insurance career as a Personal Lines Manager for two years. In 1984, he began his commercial lines focus with a national insurance firm, where he specialized in construction.

Greg is primarily interested in developing long-term business relationships by facilitating and representing the needs of his clients as their broker. He predominately specializes in construction, with an emphasis on street and road construction, for which he manages a successful program on the west coast.

Greg has lived in the Sacramento area most of his life and enjoys the adventures of the outdoor life, from cycling the parkways and foothills, to fishing and hunting. Greg and his wife, Sue, have three adult children and several grandchildren. Greg is involved with several community outreach programs.
