

Jim Foley, CPCU

Commercial Broker

Jim Foley is a commercial insurance producer in InterWest's Chico office. Jim's accounts include businesses in a wide variety of industries, from banking to farm equipment manufacturing to home health. In particular, Jim has focused on the health & fitness club industry via his involvement with our Fitness Pak program. Fitness Pak has been insuring quality clubs throughout California and neighboring western states since 1987.

Jim graduated from California State University, East Bay in 1973. He worked for the State of California, first Caltrans, then the Department of Industrial Relations, before beginning his insurance agency career in 1978 with Lawson-Hawks, a well established Bay Area firm. He obtained the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation in 1984. In 1986, at the urging of Denny Lindo and Duane Abbott, Jim came to Chico and joined Lindo, Hanna, and Abbott, which became the Chico branch of InterWest in 1992.

Jim's wife, Liz, is also with InterWest, serving as Claims Liaison/TPA Specialist.