Commercial Insurance Broker

Jesús Medina joined InterWest Insurance Services in February, 2009 as a Commercial Insurance Broker. Jesús provides his insurance expertise to the agriculture and food manufacturing/distribution industries.

Upon obtaining his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from California State University, Chico, in 2005, Jesús began his insurance career as a Marketing Development Trainee with Federated Insurance which ultimately led to the position of Marketing Representative. After an intense year of insurance training, Jesús was transferred from Minnesota to manage a territory in the Modesto area. His book of business consisted of petroleum distributors, building materials dealers, and auto, motorcycle and farm-equipment dealers. At Federated Insurance, Jesús received awards for the Far West Region Marketing Representative of the Month and he was the Life Contest winner. Seeking to expand his opportunity into other industries and geographic areas, Jesús joined the Merced office of InterWest Insurance Services in 2009. Jesús brought knowledge, energy and passion for providing the best service to clients and potential clients.

Jesús is a native of California, having grown up in Northern California on an almond and olive orchard which his father still owns and operates. Upon marrying his wife, whom he met while studying abroad in Mexico, they relocated to the Central Valley area and now reside in Modesto. They have a vigorous miniature Dachshund that brings them all the joy in the world. Jesús' wife, Mary, is currently attending Paul Mitchell School of Cosmetology to pursue her dream of being a visionary master hair stylist and change the way people see themselves, one strand at a time. They both enjoy foreign travel, food and exercise. Jesús has been committed to joining forces with the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and running marathons to raise money for the Association.
