

Mike FitzGerald, CPCU, ARM, MLIS

Commercial Insurance Broker

Mike FitzGerald joined the InterWest team in 2006, bringing 35 years of insurance experience. His early work experience began by serving his country as a member of the US Army, obtaining the rank of Major. After separating from the Army, Mike began to work for New York Life in 1974 and entered the property and casualty side of the business a few years later.

Along with having a diverse clientele, Mike has developed a niche market in the Food Processing Industry.

He has successfully negotiated with various insurance companies to expand coverage that is unique for these industries in the area of property and liability and boiler and machinery.

Mike served as a member of the Board of Directors for the Pacific Egg and Poultry Association from 2000-2008. He has given guest lectures at Cal Poly SLO School of Poultry Science and is a member of the California Poultry Association.

Mike received his insurance designation of Charter Property and Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) in 1980, Associate in Risk Management (ARM) in 2002 and Management Liability Insurance Specialist (MLIS) in 2011. Mike has served two terms with both the CPCU National Committee of Risk Management and the Excess and Surplus Lines Committee.

Mike, a native of San Francisco, graduated from the University of San Francisco. He married his college sweetheart Cathie the day we landed on the moon. Cathie is also a native of San Francisco and graduate of USE. Mike and Cathie have three grown children and currently reside in Granite Bay, CA. Mike likes SCUBA diving and playing golf in his free time.
