

Shawn Blofsky

Benefits Broker

Shawn Blofsky graduated from California State University, Chico, in 2008 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and an option in Financial Services.

Shawn joined InterWest in the Employee Benefits division in March of 2011. He enjoys InterWest's strong company values and appreciates the level of service provided the excellent support staff of the Employee Benefits division.

Shawn strives to strengthen businesses in his community by helping them develop strong benefits plans to help attract and retain employees and grow their companies. He knows how complex and confusing group health insurance is and aims to bring a simplified approach to employers as well as their employees, helping them see the value of the programs they have in place.

Shawn and his wife Monika are newlyweds, currently residing in Chico. They enjoy spending time with their family, outings in Upper Park with their dog, and traveling together.
