Tony Pozas joined the InterWest team in June, 2006. Working with diversified group clients and always searching for the perfect insurance program for his clients, he has been very active in understanding the marketplace including alternative markets, group captives, self-insurance, retrospective rating plans and other methods of risk transfer. His knowledge and counsel on the excess & surplus lines marketplace has assisted his more complex clients to make better educated and unbiased decisions on how to best manage their risk.

Continuing his education and knowledge in insurance is a high priority. In 2007, he began his pursuit of the Certified Insurance Specialist in Construction (CISC) designation to better understand the ever changing world of construction law. He has formed several relationships with risk managers as well as labor law attorneys to keep current with OSHA to help mitigate future loss for his clients.

InterWest maintains active involvement with various construction organizations such as The Valley Contractors Exchange (VCE), The Building Industry Association (BIA) and the Associated General Contractors (AGC)

Prior to his relationship with InterWest, Tony served as the Vice President of one of the largest residential remodeling firms in the state. During that period, Tony was involved with numerous charities and served on the Board of Directors for the local Boy's and Girl's Clubs of America. His passion for sales started when he was hired by U.S Foodservice out of Reno, NV, where he worked with hotel and casino clients with their purchasing of food and restaurant equipment. While living in Nevada, he had the privilege of joining the Rotary Club of Carson City.

A native of the Napa Valley, Tony currently resides in Chico, CA, with his wife and two children.
